EXERCISE AND PLAYING TIPS

Regular playing and exercising on the set lead to improvement of the general physical conditions of a child(posture, appetite, sleep).To develop strength and physical dexterity the following exercises are recommended:

-on the vertical ladder: climbing up and down the ladder, abdominal press exercises.

-on the climbing rope: pulling up on hands, climbing up along the rope.

-on the rings: pull-ups, front(back)handspring, abdominal press exercises.

In case of non-compliance with the safety measures and guidelines for the operation of the set a child can be injured!

TEACH YOUR CHILD TO PLAY SAFELY

- Do not go close to moving parts, in front of moving parts, behind or between moving parts.
- Do not twist cords holding the swing set, do not swing the empty swing set, do not loop the swing ropes over the upper crossbar.
- Do not swing sideward on swings in relation to the adjacent swing.
- Do not twist the ropes holding any other attached equipment.
- Use the equipment only for its intended use.
- Do not leave the equipment while it is in motion.
- Do not climb the equipment and do not swing with wet hands, do not use the wet equipment (after cleaning, for example).
- Do not stand in the rings.
- Do not use hammers, saws, nails, and wrenches on the equipment.
- Do not climb up the upper support of the swing set.
- Do not adapt to the play hardware elements that are not designed specifically for use with this equipment, such as (the list is not limited to): jump ropes, clotheslines, leads, cables, and chains. They can become the reason of suffocation.
- Watch for other children while going on swings or playing close to the equipment.

ADULTS ARE ALSO OBLIGED TO

- Set the maximum height of climbing and swinging according to physical abilities of each child.
- Provide children with the appropriate clothes for playing. Use comfortable shoes with slip-proof soles, sensible clothes without chains, scarves, hoods, cords, ties, ponchos, etc. Any child's clothes part stuck in the equipment may cause serious injuries.
- Make sure that the attached equipment is firmly mounted.
- Remember about children's creativity. Be ready to "change the rules" of unsafe games created by children.
